

Cheesemonger Wanted

We are looking for a cheesemonger to help us source, age and sell some of the best cheese in London. This is an opportunity to join and contribute to the continued growth of a young, award-winning business.

The role

We are currently looking for someone to join our team in a varied role across our wholesale and retail business. This is a full-time role including weekend work.

This position is ideal for someone interested in a long-term challenge with plenty of opportunity to take responsibility and grow within the business.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Serving retail customers in our shop
- Preparing and packing cheese orders for despatch to wholesale customers
- Working with our Cellar Manager to condition our cheese to the highest standards
- Organisation and cleaning in compliance with our HACCP systems
- Completing paperwork relating to food safety

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will:

- Have some experience working in the cheese industry, but this is not essential as long as you are enthusiastic and willing to learn
- Be comfortable talking to our customers and enthusing about our products
- Be organised, have an eye for detail and a genuine desire to exceed the expectations of our customers
- Be physically fit. This is a physically demanding job and you will need to be prepared to lift heavy cheese and work in our refrigerated maturing rooms
- Be able to take the initiative and be interested in contributing to the continued growth of the business as a team

In return

- We offer an annual training plan including supplier visits and industry get-togethers (when they resume)
- Discount on our cheese and other speciality produce
- Salary £18–24k depending on experience

If you think this is for you then please forward your CV along with a cover letter to info@buchananscheesemonger.com
